4. Applicant's Signature

I understand that financial aid awards are made based on full-time enrollment and that awards will be adjusted for less than full-time attendance. I also understand that financial aid is not awarded for less than half-time attendance. I will use my financial assistance only to pay expenses related to my education. The information I am submitting is complete and accurate. I will notify The Iliff School of Theology Office of Financial Aid of any changes to this information and changes in my registration status throughout the year. I understand Iliff reserves the right to cancel or reduce financial assistance benefits should this information prove inaccurate, should misrepresentation occur, should I reduce my course load during the year, should I fail to make satisfactory academic progress, or should it be discovered that I am in default on a previous educational loan. I understand that failure to comply with instructions and/or deadlines may result in the reduction or cancellation of my financial aid. By signing and entering the date below, I acknowledge that I have read and agree to these conditions.
