SEE | IMAGINE | ENGAGE

You see the world differently. You can imagine being involved with things that matter. You know that you can contribute to positive change.
So you know you want to make a difference, but don’t know where to start? Let one of our admissions representatives help you discover the degree or certificate that best suits your needs.

Start with where you see yourself:

- I’m passionate about leading change. The Master of Arts in Social Change (MASC) gives you the range of knowledge necessary to lead non-profit, social service, business, government or community organizations.
- I want to lead communities of faith. The Master of Divinity (MDIV) is the degree you’ll need for ordination or traditional ministry in most denominational settings.
- I’m interested in pastoral care or counseling. The Master of Arts in Pastoral and Spiritual Care (MAPSC) provides what you’ll need to serve as a pastoral care specialist. This degree may be combined with a Master of Social Work from the University of Denver.
- I want to lead an agency or organization. The Master of Divinity (MDIV) or the Master of Arts in Social Change (MASC) would be best for you.
- Teaching is for me. While any of the five masters programs can lead to further doctoral work, the Master of Arts (MA) and the Master of Theological Studies (MTS) degrees are designed for further academic work.
- I want to expand my current career. The Master of Theological Studies (MTS) is the flexible degree you need to integrate religious and theological studies into an existing career.
- I’m not yet ready for a degree, but want to learn more. Try one of our certificates or simply take a course. There are several options to fit your needs.

Iliff offers the unique opportunity to help demonstrate your ability to engage others and showcase your competencies to future employers. You can earn a certificate while earning your degree in various concentration areas, including Iliff’s signature course, Authentic Engagement™.
