Graduate Certificates

Iliff's Graduate Certificate Program offers students the opportunity to obtain a certificate by completing four courses in a specific area of concentration. Courses can be taken online, on-campus, or in hybrid formats and may be applied toward an Iliff graduate degree.

Courses You Can Consider:

- Anglican Studies – Courses from within the Anglican Studies curriculum or related courses
- Biblical Studies – Biblical Ethics; Teaching the Bible; Praying with Scripture
- General Theological Studies – Courses across the curriculum selected on the basis of subject matter by the student and approved by the dean
- Pastoral and Spiritual Care – Applicants for this certificate must complete an interview with faculty before acceptance
- Religion and Social Change – Race, Gender, Class; Ethical Perspectives on Justice and Peace; Social Construction and Selfhood; Impact of War on the Pastoral Care of Families; and more
- United Methodist Studies – United Methodist History and Doctrine; Discipline and Polity; Mission and Evangelism
- Women and Religion – Feminist Theology, Women in American Religious History, Feminist Interpretation of the Bible, or Women in Early Christianity
